DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1,3-4,8-12,15-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Percel et al. (US 6,451,345 B1), for the reasons set forth in the previous office action filed 04/09/2009.

Claims 1,3-5,8-12,15-20 and 22-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McTeigue et al (US 2002/0031552 A1, cited previously) in view of Percel et al. (US 6,451,345 B1), for the reasons set forth in the previous office action filed 04/09/2009.

Claims 1-4,8-12 and 15-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Percel et al. (US 6,451,345 B1) in view of Urquhart et al. (US 4,851,232), for the reasons set forth in the previous office action filed 04/09/2009.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 06/25/2009 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicants assert that Percel only uses HPMC K4M in example 7 which pertains to an extended release tablet that cannot read on their own claimed immediate release chewable tablet or render it obvious.

The examiner respectfully disagrees. Clearly Percel teaches the use of HPMC and claims it, a specific example of an HPMC used in the examples was K4M, therefore one of ordinary skill in the art could have readily envisaged its use in the fast disintegrating or chewable tablets disclosed within. The examples within Percel were given solely for the purpose of illustration and were not to be construed as being limiting to their invention since many variations are possible without departing from the spirit and scope of the invention.

Conclusion

No claims are allowed at this time.

Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
